

Engine Services

flexible solutions to optimise engine performance

Partner of choice for engine services

AJW's engine specialists are committed to reducing customers' overall engine operating costs, offering a broad range of service capabilities across all narrow-body and wide-body commercial aircraft engines.

We are experts in helping airlines optimise their engine performance to deliver efficiency savings that drive profits.

We review

- asset valuations
- physical engines inspections
- borescope overview
- end of life solutions
- technical documentation reviews
- MRO selection
- engine selection

We manage

- maintenance event management
- transition management
- engine material salvation programmes
- warehousing and logistics
- engine storage
- fleet management programmes
- on-wing services management
- consultancy services
- lease engines portfolio

We support

- acquisitions
- material sales
- LRU/QEC sales
- consignment programmes
- engine stands sale/lease

We offer a broad range of reliable engine services across a number of engine types, including the leasing and repair of Boeing and Airbus engines; or expert shop visit management support across all aircraft platforms.

Contact our engines team today.

engineservices@ajw-group.com

ajw-group.com

